A Christmas Carol

An interactive theatre show for students of English

Ebenezer Scrooge is the hardest, coldest, and meanest old man in London. One evening his life is changed completely by four ghosts. They show him images of Christmas in the past, present and future and finally he becomes '...as good a man as the good old city knew.' Dickens himself said A Christmas Carol was 'intended to awaken loving thoughts' and it is indeed one of the best loved stories in English literature.

This show can be played directly at your school or in a theatre space near you. Please contact us for details.

About The Theatre

The Bear Educational Theatre is an international travelling theatre company. It supports English teaching by producing interactive educational theatre performances and workshops. The performances feature professional teacher/actors and are designed to be watched by groups of students directly in schools. The Bear Educational Theatre is exceptional because of its pedagogical quality, its ability to travel and play anywhere and its reasonable prices.
