Because of the Covid-19 pandemic we are making a few changes to our program

- Safe shows - If we come to your school, our team will be sure to wear masks when moving around the school, social distance from students and teachers and disinfect any objects we touch.
- New online program - Some of our shows are now available online. This means that you can watch live from your school as we play for you in Prague.

A Selection of Our Shows

A Show Full of Lies

« ONLINE »

We all think that lying is wrong, but we all do it sometimes. In fact lying and working out if others are lying is a major element in human interaction. This show looks at different aspects of lying, mostly the fun sides but a few more serious sides too.

level: upper-intermediate | age: 15-18 years

The History of England Part 1

« ONLINE »

Who built Stonehenge? What was so great about Alfred the Great? Out of Henry VIII's six wives who was killed, who was divorced and who died naturally? From the time of the Romans to Queen Elizabeth I, this show helps students learn about English history by presenting the main events in a fun and interactive way.

level: Upper-intermediate | age: 14-18 years

1984 vs Brave New World

« ONLINE »

Two famous futuristic novels of the last century, but which one is most relevant to our society today? This show depicts the world of each story, makes the case for each novel, and lets the audience decide in the end.

level: Upper-intermediate | age: 14-18 years

The History of English Literature

« ONLINE »

The History of English Literature is a new show which introduces students to some of the names and works that have stood out since the year 1000. The show is light interactive, and fun. It contains great stories, texts, information, and even a quiz. It hopes to leave the audience wanting to find out more for themselves.

level: Upper-Intermediate | age: 15-18 years

A Christmas Carol

Ebenezer Scrooge is the hardest, coldest, and meanest old man in London. One evening his life is changed completely by four ghosts. They show him images of Christmas in the past, present and future and finally he becomes ...as good a man as the good old city knew.

level: Upper-intermediate | age: 14-18 years

Who Are You?

« ONLINE »

Who Are You? - A quotation from Shakespeare says 'Above all else unto yourself be true.' Good advice, but difficult to follow, especially for a teenager. This show looks at the essential topic of personal identity. How can we decide what is really important to us as individuals?

level: Upper-intermediate | age: 14-18 years

- Other shows are also available. See www.thebeartheatre.com for a full offer.
- Shows marked 'online' are also available in an online version.
- All online shows cost 3200 Kc
- The Show 'A Christmas Carol' is only available in the period 24.11 - 18.12.

A Guest in Your Classroom

Invite one of our actors to join your class (or classes) online either in person or as an actor-in-role. This way you can talk with a Globe Theatre actor (really), with William Shakespeare, or even a homeless person. This is a very dynamic format for creating an especially effective and memorable lesson. Price 1500 Kc.
